Patricia Joanne Johnson of Arlington Heights recently became the bride of Richard Lee Threlkeld in the same church where her parents were married.

The former Miss Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuen K. Johnson of 706 N. Wilshire L.A., Arlington Heights, also was baptized, confirmed and graduated from grade school in the church, St. Mary's Church of Evanston.

Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Threlkeld Jr. of 210 N. Elmhurst rd., Prospect Heights.

The couple were united in an 11 a.m. nuptial high Mass on Aug. 20, with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Frederick E. Hillenbrand, St. Mary's pastor, officiating.

BUGS BUNNY

DOCTOR SAYS

High Blood Pressure

W. G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

A high blood pressure may also be caused by overactivity of the thyroid, primary tumors and several other organic diseases. Since very serious hypertension is frequently hereditary, a psychosomatic factor is frequently present. Psychosomatic factors would not be likely to cure the disease but such therapy in the form of a deep interest in one's doctor coupled with reassurance, a sound plan of drug treatment and efforts to relax nervousness would undoubtedly be helpful. Finally, as a terrifying experience may be a factor in producing nervousness, it could contribute to high blood pressure and heart disease.

Q-My doctor says I have rheumatic heart disease. I also have high blood pressure. What exercises can I do that won't be too strenuous?

A-First, instead of run. Take exercises or activities whenever possible. If you must climb stairs, go up slowly and run for a minute at each landing. Limit the time on your back then rest at a leisurely pace, preferably on a supine back, just finds or a supported back.

Q-What is the cause of rheumatoid? Is there any cure for it?

A-There are several varieties of this disease which is an inflammation of the joints. The cause may be a virus, as in polyarthralgia, blood clot or a direct injury to the joint. Now cure is known but the severity varies with the cause and other factors.

Bus Complaint Backfires, 155 Pupils to Walk

BY JAN BONE

Free bus service for 155 students at Grove Junior High School will end Sept. 30.

On Sept. 29, the school board decided last night it has been properly for over five years. As a result, the district expects it may have to repay more than $500 to state aid.

The decision came after parents complained that their children were not being given transportation to Elgin Grove High School. They based their argument on Dist. 29's policy for Grove Junior High.

Dist. 29 has been providing transportation for children living north of Oakton St., while the high school district most of the area is in the jurisdiction of the 112 mile limit for bus funding.

When the high school issued its findings were accurate, Dist. 29 refunded to the state.

"It was an error, and the error was caught," said board president Doug Brown.

Bus service stops Sept. 30 for all students affected except 12 who do five minutes from 1 1/2 mile limit.

One possibility, Dist. 29 board members said, is to let a bus through the area and charge students who wish to ride it.

Crossing parents at Oakton and Leander St. will be provided. Acting Sup. Ludwig Bodewig suggested using the Chicago Motor Club as a consultant for traffic surveys and safety.

Dist. 29 board members slightly refunded will send letters to parents of children affected. The entire program is going to be "re-evaluated" to be sure the situation doesn't arise anywhere else.

Schools in the elementary district include Juliette Low at Arlington Heights, Duquesne Junior High, Forest View Elementary, and Robert Frost in Mount Prospect; and others in Des Plaines and Elk Grove Village.

Dist. 214 H.S. Students Total 10,785

The official opening day enrollment for five high schools in Dist. 214 is 10,785 students. Wheeling High School has the largest number of students with 2,714.

Enrollment in the other schools are: Arlington High School, 2,331; Elk Grove High School, 1,435; Forest View High School, 2,066; and Prospect High School, 2,267.

The busman class is the largest with a total of 3,115 students. Wheeling High School has the largest number of students, 809 students.

IN JUNE, approximately 2,218 students will be graduated. The largest senior class is at Forest View High School with a total of 466 members.

Arlington High School has the smallest senior class. Elk Grove High School, which opened this month, does not have a senior class.

Church Burglar Sentenced

Walter Mills, the 19-year-old Melrose youth arrested Sunday for burglarizing St. Peter Lutheran Church, was sentenced to six months at the House of Correction.

Mills entered the church at 11:30 p.m. Sunday and stole a radio, a television set, a cash register, and other valuables. He was arrested by police officers on Monday.

Judge Burton Kolman, in passing sentence, said Mills should receive credit for two months he spent in Cook County Jail undergoing psychiatric examination after his arrest.

JUDGE Kolman told Mills that he felt the youth must pay his debt to society.

"My first obligation is to society," he said. "My next is to rehabilitate you if you are serious about wanting to change."

The judge told Mills that if he is released to court house, you will come to me with an open heart, I will do my best to help you to bring you a new start," he said.

"I hope that you get a job, finish your education if you wish, and start over."

Good Friend On Way To See Marcia

MRS. MILLER PACES PRESENTS FOR MARCIA

Marcia De Maria, a 5-year-old orphan who lives in Annapolis, Md., is going to meet a good friend soon. That friend, Mrs. Clara W. Miller of Arlington Heights, will bring a collection of presents for Marcia including clothing, useful articles, games and dolls.

Mrs. Miller, 715 E. Grand, has been helping to supply Marcia with new dresses for several years, though she lives in Annapolis.

MRS. MILLER belongs to the Chicago chapter of the War-Vet Organization, which sends $10 monthly to help for Marcia's table wardrobe when she lives.

The Arlington Heights woman and her husband are leaving Sept. 29 for an 11-day tour in South America. In Brazil, the couple will stop in Rio de Janeiro and Brasilia, from which they'll go to Annapolis.

"She can hardly wait," said Mrs. Miller, who was a general office worker in the Women's Army Corps from 1941 to 1945.

There's a little girl several thousands miles away who probably can hardly wait.

Think Fur

BY JERILYN WATSON

Advice to the fashionable woman this fall must include a new phrase: "Think fur."

Fur is being the season. Bring into a multi-million dollar from sportswear to haute couture.

Time was when fur was something well-to-do women wore in coats and coats. The average girl, the really brave one, wore a fur collar on a wool dress.

Today's well-to-do girl, in contrast, has fur flung at her in clothing including dresses, pantsuits, hats and even nightwear.

Although the trend is general, one man is particular because the credit - or blame - is for the fur coat.

It is Emory Parton, custom fur designer for Bergdorf Goodman.

Parton's 1944-45 collection will be shown Wednesday, Sept. 21 at a cocktail party in the Grand Ball of the Ambassador Hotel.

THIS WILL BE Bergdorf Goodman's first showing of fur fashions in Chicago. It is being staged as a preview of what is more for the Chicago area smart set when Bergdorf Goodman's store is opened in the 10-story John Hancock Center on N. Michigan Ave. in 1948.

Construction is in progress on the center.

In Parton's hands, adventurous techniques transform fur into a young girl's "Tweed" choker, three-dimensional cube effects and flowing waist-length drape perspectives have been designed into neck coats and dresses - and all two coats above the knee.

A subtle design is achieved through black, white and gray shades of skin cut into blocks. Striped leather coats, mink-like, may be worn with the obscure in the back or the fur.

A snappy pantsuit is Parton's creation in Fur-skin lamb, with fur used in body stockings that zip up the back. It is to show curves.

The rest of the picture - and you can hand Parton the originally severe - is a stretch leather.

THE TURNABOUT idea in coats is available in other skin lambskin coats. Checkmate, for example, is worked in horizontal lines in a coat equally chic with the sporting in back or front.

Expensive fur like sable and Russian broadtail have the Parton trademark of fabric-like suppleness. The achieve this by building fur construction on chiffon and teasing them with chiffon linings and drapes.

Parton may be believed layered chiffon of fur true winter.

For the shirt-dramatic, he has dyed sable black, adorned it with a jet-beaded belt and contrasted off-white quilts of white ostrich over the coat. As a skin-tough man's shirt in white mink buttons nonchalantly down the entire front.

A BEA-STRIPPED woolen coat is teamed with a white army dress. A pale pink chiffon dress is bordered with interlocking mink, and a mink coat lined in black and lined in the same chiffon completes the costume look.

In Parton's view, the total costume look is for sports, too. He co-ordinates new usage and contrast blue and white coats with Persian lamb tights - and the same for trim coats.

Revers and white self peaks accompany a brown suede jacket lined in white and brown mink. The mink is patterned to simulate castles.

Striped leather coats, mink-like, are shown with body stockings of the same material but plastic but the coats are lined, oh joyous luxury, in mink.

Commuters Moan at New Parking Rate

Two quarters is too much to pay for one parking space. That is the opinion of commuters who are moaning at the new parking rate at the railroad depot here Tuesday.

Those opinions came as a response to an ordinance passed Monday by the village board raising parking meter rates from 25 to 50 cents at four lots adjacent to the railroad depot. More than 210 parking spaces are involved.

"Twenty-five cents is reasonable for unattended parking, 50 cents is not," Tom Wade, 230 South St., Rolling Meadows, said.

One lot directly north of the depot already charges 50 cents for 15-minute parking. The new meter rate is the lot at 5 p.m. Tuesday.

"The trouble with this kind of deal is there isn't much you can do about it," Wade said, shrugging his shoulders.

"Maybe I'm starting a bike."

Another commuter had a more reasonable solution: "I wouldn't pay 50 cents. I'd have my wife shut me back and forth," he said.

Tom Wade, 231 Park, Rolling Meadows, said he wouldn't pay the increased rate.

"I know a place by Recreation Park where I can park free," he said.

One woman said she will have some blocks from her home rather than pay the increased rate.

The village board has provided, as alternative, commuters can park behind the Municipal building at 33 N. Arlington Heights Rd. for 25 cents.

"Sure I'd walk two blocks to have a quarter if the weather is okay," one commuter said.

"When I can't find a parking spot I sometimes go over there," he said.

Four commuters said they didn't know there was a lot behind the Municipal Building.

One purpose behind the rate increase is to encourage more commuters to use the Municipal Building lot. Another purpose is to raise revenue.

"The Municipal Building lot is fine for very early hours. But I'm just like Gregor Mendel," K. Christensen, 4125 Wilson, Rolling Meadows, said.

"It's lucky if I make the train the way it is. Two more blocks would kill me."

Homeowners, Clinic Officials Agree to Talks

The Northwest Co-operative Mental Health Clinic and Sunny Ridge homeowners have agreed to discuss their differences.

The Sunny Ridge group is opposed to the proposed site for a new mental health clinic. The site purchased by the mental health association is adjacent to the Johnson Lane Elementary school and a fire park on Highland Ave.

Last night's meeting of the mental health association's board of directors was attended by two representatives of the Sunny Ridge Property Owners Assn., James Menzies, 311 Victoria Lane, and Carl Pahl, 17155 Chestnutfield.

Prior to the board's adjournment, president Harry Hanson, 300 S. Williams, Mount Prospect, said Menzies and Pahl if they had the time to say.

"We're guests here and I certainly don't want to take advantage," but there are some questions we'd like answered," said Pahl.

"Feel free to ask any questions. We'd certainly like to have the chance to answer your questions," Hanson replied.

Pahl and Menzies presented to question the board said Hanson interrupted.

"We're afraid we don't have any more time," he said, "but I appreciate your questions coming here tonight, and I hope that this won't be the end of our discussion."

AS THE meeting broke up, Pahl and Menzies set down for coffee with Dr. Stanley Stasman, the clinic's medical director, and George Faust, a psychiatric social worker on the clinic's staff.

Dr. Stasman told Pahl that many of his questions could only be answered after clinic records were examined. He explained that it would take several days to supply this information, that he would be glad to answer questions.

Pahl and Menzies volunteered to complete a list of questions. These would be submitted to the clinic in writing.

"I am not a resident, after we supply you with this material and you have time to discuss it with your members, why we can't all sit down together and hash this thing out," said Stasman.

Pahl and Menzies said they will discuss the Sunny Ridge area and compile a list of questions to submit to the clinic.

"Then," said Menzies, "I'll have time with Dr. Stasman, we'll sit down and talk."

Dist. 25 Plight

Schools Face Growth with Empty Pocket

By JIM BOSS

On Saturday residents living in Elementary School Dist. 25 will be asked to approve an increase in building and educational fund tax rates. Dist. 25 includes 14 schools: Dryden, Duane, Gunter, Ivy Hill, Kensington, North, Olive, Park, Peoria, Ridge, Wagon, West, Windsor, Junior Junior High, Thomas Junior High and North Junior High.

One of the main reasons for the tax increase is because of school administration by the board of education is growth.

Arlington Heights has a reputation as a progressive community, but administrators have the school district in by no means weakly and they have grown for many of the reasons.

Arlington Heights growth they say has been almost exclusively residential.

There is no industry with plants, large tracts of land and money available to provide a school district with tax revenue adding children to school rooms. In addition, the industrial land eliminates areas which could otherwise be developed residentially.

TWENTY years ago, Dist. 25 had two schools with a combined enrollment of 604 students. There were only 20 classes in the district at the time with an average class size of 30.

With classes closed in June, Dist. 25 was serving 1,511 students in 16 schools. The average class size was almost the same as 20 years ago—31—but that average is now 25.

Propose Memorial For All A.H. Servicemen

A proposed memorial for Arlington Heights men serving in Viet Nam may become a memorial for all village men who have served in all wars.

The suggestion came in a committee report by Thomas Village Trustee Thomas Hanson at the meeting last evening.

He said presently village memorials honor only veterans who have served through World War I.

When a memorial is built should be placed where it will get the greatest possible exposure to young people, Hulse said.

Also, it should be put at a location that would be convenient for Memorial Day ceremonies.

Lions to Sell Sweets for a Cause

Arlington Heights Lions last night began preparation for their annual Candy Day for the Blind to be held in conjunction with National Lions Week Oct. 7 and 8.

Candy Day will be held Oct. 7 and 8. All proceeds from the sale of the candy will go towards the Lions Club and to the blind, which is sponsoring leader guide to blind persons and the support of the Healey School for the Blind.

A guest at the meeting was Cheryl Curtis, 15, of 915 N. Walnut, who has attended Camp Lion Hastings Lake for the past five years. The camp, operated by the Lions club, is financed by Lions Clubs.

Helen Adams, assistant director and its secretary at the Healey School, was the main speaker at the meeting. Adams, who is blind, described a film on the school's operation and described a Braille shorthand system he is perfecting.

Lions Club President Victor Beiler said that one of the unique aspects of Lion activities is that 100 per cent of the money collected goes to aid the blind.

"There are no deductions to pay administrative costs or any other cost," he said. "Every penny we collect goes to the blind."

Municipal League Passes Proposal on County Zoning

A resolution proposed by the Arlington Heights Village board requesting the state legislature to pass a bill to fund the county over a period of 1 1/2 months of their funds was approved unanimously Tuesday by the Illinois Municipal League.

County representatives now given notice of an anticipated meeting of Chicago's Police Board. Since the Municipal League's resolutions concerning the proposed bill.

Approval of the League's bill - municipal governing bodies and in Springfield.

field lobbying organizations behind the proposal.

Village President John G. Woods said the measure was passed without discussion.

"I passed no opposition to it," he said.

Woods said the opposition part of the approved resolution is identical to the way the village board presented it to the League.

Last month the village board passed the resolution after the board approved a request for high rate apartment zoning on a 15-acre site on Central and Lincoln Sts.

ABLINGTON Heights Village Manager L. A. Hanson, village trustee Thomas Hanson, and village attorney Jack Singh attended the meeting and Woods.

"We all were very, very much in agreement," Hanson said.

Woods said the opposition part of the approved resolution is identical to the way the village board presented it to the League.

"This is a good example of how you have to fight for the things that you want," he said.

The resolution also comes as part of a request for high rate apartment zoning on a 15-acre site on Central and Lincoln Sts.

Woods said the village board is preparing a report, as promised the Municipal Trust Conference Nov. 11.

HOSKA - A FRUIT AND NUT BREAD

Try Hoska, Czech Treat

Baking bread is easy and a good way to work away any tensions that may be bothering you. Over a half million 4-H's have participated in a bread making project during this year, according to an estimate made by the National 4-H Service Committee. Foreign breads are among more 4-H favorites. One popular recipe is for an old Czechoslovakian fruit and nut bread, Hoska.

- HOSKA
- 3/4 cup milk
  - 3/4 cup sugar
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt
  - 1/2 cup (1 stick) margarine
  - 1/2 cup warm water (105-115 degrees)
  - 2 eggs
  - 5-7/2 cups unbleached flour
  - 1/4 cup chopped blanched almonds
  - 1/4 cup chopped citron
  - 1/4 cup seedless raisins
  - 1 egg
  - 1 tablespoon cold water
  - 1/4 cup whole blanched almonds

Salt milk; stir in sugar, salt, and margarine; cool to lukewarm. Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Stir in lukewarm milk mixture, 2 eggs, and 3 cups of the flour. Beat until smooth. Stir in enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board; knead until smooth and elastic, about 10 minutes. Place in greased bowl, turning to greased top. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 1/4 hours.

Punch dough down. Turn out onto lightly floured board; knead in chopped blanched almonds, citron, and raisins until well distributed. Roll dough into a 16-inch long rope. Place in a well greased 14 x 14 x 4-inch large loaf pan. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 1/4 hours.

Beat 1 egg and 1 tablespoon cold water together until well blended. Gently brush loaf with egg mixture. Decorate with whole blanched almonds.

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) about 45 to 50 minutes, or until done.

Q--After my doctor examined me he said, "If you ever have to call a doctor who doesn't know you, don't be frightened if he mentions a heart murmur." He says I have a piston murmur. What type is that?

A—Piston murmur is not a standard medical term but your doctor's advice is excellent. Many murmurs are of no consequence and yet may be a source of unnecessary worry. When a heart disease is present other findings are of much greater importance.

Q--What is the significance, cause and effect of a very slow pulse? Is there any remedy for it?

A-A PULSE rate may be as low as 30 per minute until blood pressure is restored. There is no evidence of heart block (interference with the conduction of nervous stimulation within the heart); increased pressure inside the skull due to hemorrhage, tumor or brain abscess; poisoning with digitalis, salicylates or other drugs; or markedly low activity of the thyroid (myxedema). If any treatment is required it could consist of removing the cause.

Q-I have had pericarditis twice. What causes it? How serious is it? How can a person avoid recurrences?

A—Inflammation of the membrane that surrounds the heart is usually caused by a infection with the streptococcus or staphylococcus. Other causes include tuberculosis, uremia, cancer and direct injury. The disease may be mild or severe depending on a variety of factors. You can best avoid recurrences by observing the rules of hygiene and keeping us physically fit as possible.

Drought Relief From a Ditch?

BY MAMLYN HELPERS

Drought relief for the Arlington Heights area may be in sight, if Carl Perkins of Peabody Products, Inc. is correct.

Peabody is a charming 70-year-old with gray hair and a twined walking stick who came to The Day armed in his mind, not just to "help" residents of this area with their drought problem.

According to Perkins, if his Peabody Products' Producer is scattered on the lawn, the "saw" will remain green all summer, without sprinkling.

Peabody said, "My soil conditioner attracts moisture from the lawn, even the air, while it supplies nutrients to the lawn."

Peabody said, "I discovered this animal and when we were digging a ditch in my yard in Lake County. Since I had been state chairman of the conservation for the Isaac Wilson League, I recognized that this soil was different. I took it to a chemist and now we believe the soil was formed during a period before the glacier."

Peabody continued, "The soil contains Thorobaceous experiences because from the glacial period. Because of this and the fact that the soil is not covered with clay, we believe water air or water will not evaporate it from the place."

Peabody went on, "Samples show that this land was once a lake covering 30 acres that has filled up. On top of this is a layer of fossil sand shells covered by a drained sand base."

PERKINS displayed reports (from a folder that also contained pictures of his 11 children) stating that his conditioner is 25 per cent organic compounds and 65 per cent non-organic.

Peabody added with a chuckle, "I'm not in any hurry to do anything with my peabody product. I'm only 70 years old and have lots of time."

"I love to be out there when the weather digs on a couple truck loads," he said. "We always find something interesting."

"HOW DO you package your product?" he was asked.

"Well," said Perkins, "the truck brings a couple loads up the front lawn in Glen Ellyn and my 11 kids just love to lift and pack it into containers for me."

Peabody recalled, "I put my Peabody Products on 40 acres of land in Glen Ellyn last year we had a dry spell and my wife was taller than any other woman in the neighborhood. The next of the farmers around me of using special drought resistant seeds," he said, "but, they were just plain seeds."

"And," he continued, "since they thought I had special seeds I couldn't disappoint them. So the next year I sold them some of my old seed for 50 cents more than the market price. Lucky for all of us, we had lots of rain that year and everyone had good crops," said Perkins.

"Two out of three members of The Day received samples of Peabody Products' Producer if they have the only green lawn around, they will let you know."

Plans Underway For Wheeling Ball

At Randhurst Ten-Day Salute To Illinois Opens Tomorrow

Donald C. French has been transferred to the Arlington Heights office of Illinois Bell. He replaced former district manager H. W. Schwab who has been appointed operations supervisor in the company's Methods and Procedures department in Chicago.

"Salute to Illinois," a ten-day exposition described by planners as an indoor state fair, will open at 11 a.m., Thursday at the Randhurst shopping center.

The exposition will endeavor to trace the history of the Prairie State, from the days of the pioneers and Indians, through the era of Lincoln, to the present age of technology and automation.

The entire show will take place within the national mall of Randhurst and will feature exhibits by industries, civic organizations, and state agencies. The exposition has been arranged non-commercial and non-commercial in its plan.

AMONG THE special exhibits assembled for the nation's exposition will be a collection of 30 paintings by prominent Illinois artists, a collection of antique carriages, a tape village constructed by the American Indian Society, and a 14-foot display tracing the history of voting and explaining the intricacies of the mechanisms used in the election of American presidents.

Other special events will include a concert by the Wheeling High School Band, and the reenactment of historic scenes in the life of Abraham Lincoln performed by Springfield's Abe Lincoln Players.

GOVERNOR EED KERNER heads the list of state dignitaries expected to open the exposition. Also scheduled to attend are Ray Papp, representative of public transportation, Paul Powell, secretary of state, and Richard Neuman, director of the Division of Tourism, Department of Economic Development.

Donald C. Mohr, 977 N. Forest, Arlington Heights, has been presented in his department's newspaper, the Independent, in Illinois Bell Telephone's Radio Administration Department in Chicago.

Arlington Harriers Upset Evanston

BY BOB CASTELLANE

A giant step toward greatness was taken yesterday by the Arlington High School varsity cross-country team. The Cardinals' harriers challenged—and upset—Evanston's perennial power.

The Wildcats' Dave Abernathy set a new course record of 10:05 over the Pioneer Park course, but Arlington's determination and depth offset his first-place finish.

THE CARDINALS took second, fifth, sixth and eighth in route to the win, with junior Dave Dieters setting a new school record of 10:08 as the runner to second place. The old mark of 10:08 was set last year by team-captain Bob Vesel against Hinsdale District's mark, which also the school's junior-state standard.

The second Cardinal through the chest was junior Roy Cassidy, who placed third. Team captain Greg Busch was fifth, and Tom Swenson sixth. Senior placed eighth, Larry Mahendroff ninth, and Scott Stuber rounded out the varsity crew with a fifth.

THE ARLINGTON freshman team suffered a narrow defeat, failing to the Wildcat second-place, 26-31. Two freshman runners led the Arlington team, with Scott Butler placing first and Ken Mahendroff second.

Butler's 11:06 set a new top school record, snipping his old mark of 11:20 set last year before he grabbed the team.

Two Share Low Net in Golf Loop

Mike Spaulo and Ziggy Powell tied for low net honors Sunday on the Job Roy Tinsley Night Golf League round in annual league honors with a 70-66, while Powell, runner in was 80-70. Spaulo's 70 was also good for long-range honors, with Wally Strickling second with a 76.

SECOND-FLIGHT winners were Red Adams (65-75) and Tom Vesel (65-75). Third flight honors went to Bill Sapp (71-75), while Ray Meyers (72-75) and Paul Malchow (70-75) shared fourth-flight honors. Redwood Farm Drive won the league championship. Team members were Warren Egan, Bob Hornbush, Len Damsman, and Malchow. Second place went to Pleasant Heights Pharmacy, which included players Wayne Kelly, Bob Peterson, Jay Stuard, and Marty Marita.

DON FRANTZELL won the first flight title, and Vic Hoffman took the second flight honors. The Don Michaels won the third flight and Bill Wagner won the fourth-flight honors.

Trophies and prizes will be presented at the annual league banquet Saturday at General's Restaurant, Mc. Prospect.

Win Was Good for Our Morale: Coach

BY BOB CASTELLANE

"This win is a great morale-booster for our team," crowed Coach Bruce Sammons last night after his Arlington High School varsity cross-country team knocked off highly favored Evanston in their dual meet at the Cardinal course.

"It's good for us, because it gives us a psychological lift. The next time we meet one of the big-name teams we'll have an edge, because our boys will know they can handle a tough team," he said.

The Evanston - Arlington meet was scheduled last year because the coaching staff wanted to face a strong foe instead of a pushy team. When a schedule hole appeared for Sept. 20 for both schools, it was decided for them to set up the "CRS" kids put on a display of real courage," said Sammons. "They went into the meet as underdogs, but they wanted to win."

They ran as well as they're capable of running, and when they were first in the lead the coach to sacrifice for them," he said.

The triumph is a great step in Sammons' program to build a consistent team in Arlington. "We're going to win it," said Sammons. "We're going to win it."

"We're going to win it," said Sammons. "We're going to win it."

What's Football? . . . Color, and a Poem

Arlington varsity cheerleader Lynn Larson encourages response from an excited crowd of fans during her school's opening-game victory over Burlington.

Mike Miller (66) and Phil Tushnet (31) of St. Victor's varsity football team get an enthusiastic reception from their schoolmates as they return to the field after halftime intermission during last Saturday's win over Glenbrook South.

Pretty pom-pom girls are framed between members of the track Prospect High School marching band during halftime ceremonies at last week's Prospect grid opener.

'How You Played the Game'

The late Grantland Rice, one of the all-time great sports writers and reporters, dabbled in poetry during his colorful career, enhancing his copy and enchanting millions of sports-fan readers.

IN ADDITION he was responsible for some of the most sparkling and descriptive commentary on what has become known as the "Golden Age of Sports." Typical of his work was the lead paragraph on the Army-Notre Dame game of 1924 which read: "OUTLINED AGAINST the blue-gray October sky, the Four Horsemen rode again, in dramatic lore they are known as Famous, Penitence, Desolation and Death. Their names are Shalshuler, Miller, Crowley, and Layden. They formed the crest of the South Bend cyclone before which another fighting Army football team was swept over the precipice at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon as 55,000 spectators perched down on the bewildering panorama spread on the green plain below."

THE FABLE of the Four Horsemen of Notre Dame had been born.

But even more famous than the legend he began about the four Irish backfield stars, are the words with which he closed one of his many sports poems: "For when the One Great Score comes to mark against your name, he writes—not that you won or lost—but how you played the game."

BECAUSE THE entire poem suggests a lesson that can never be over-learned, the Day is reprinted it, with the suggestion that it be clipped and saved, and occasionally be reread by all young athletes.

Alumnus Football

BILL JONES HAD been the shining star upon his college team. His tackling was ferocious and his blocking was a dream. When bulky William took the ball beneath his heavy arm. They had two extra men to ring the ambulance alarm.

Bill hit the line and ran the ends like some mad bull a-muck. The other team would shiver when they saw him start to back. And when some rival tackler tried to block his dashing pace, On waking up, he'd ask, "Who drove that truck across my feet?"

Bill had the speed-Bill had the weight-Bill never bucked in vain. From goal to goal he whizzed along while fragments strewn the plain. And there had been a standing bet, which no one tried to call. That he could make his distance through a ten-foot granite wall.

WHEN HE WOUND up his college course each student's heart was sore. They kept to think half-dreamed Bill would sock the line no more. Not so with William—in his dreams he saw the Field of Fame. Where he would buck in glory in the swirl of Life's big game.

Sweet are the dreams of college life, before our faith is tried. The world is but a cherry rose that's waiting to be plucked. The world is but an open road—until we find, one day, How far away the goal posts are that called us to the play.

So, with the shrapnel tucked beneath his arm in football style, Bill put on steam and dashed into the thicket of the pile. With eyes ablaze he spotted where the laureled highway led. Bill will wake up his sleep hang loose and know adored his head.

HE TRIED TO RUN the ends of life, but with rib-rattling loss. A row of cinders tucked him and threw him like a log. And when he switched his course again and dashed into the line. The massive Guard named Failure did a tiddle on his spine.

Bill tried to punt out of the rut, but ere he turned the trick Right Tackle Competence scuttled through and blocked the kick. And when he tackled at Success in one long, vicious prod The Fullback Disappointment snored his features in the sod.

Bill was no quitter, so he tried to back to higher gear. But Left Guard Every broke it up and stood him on his rear. Wharret he aimed a forward pass, but in a vicious bound Big Center Greed slipped through the hole and slammed him to the ground.

But one day, when across the Field of Fame the goal seemed dim. The wise old coach, Experience, came up and spoke to him. "Oh Boy," he said, "the mark point now before you with your foot is keep on bucking Failure till you've worn the picker out!"

"AND, MID, CUT out the fancy stuff—go in there, low and hard. Just keep your eye upon the ball and plug on, yard by yard. And more than all, when you are thrown or tumbled with a crack. Don't sit there wailing—bustle up and keep on coming back."

"Keep coming back with all you've got, without an idle. If Competence trips you up so as leads you on your eye. Until at last about the die you hear the sentence spoken: 'We might as well let this kid through before we all get killed.'"

"You'll find the road is long and rough, with soft spots far apart. Where only those can make the grade who have the Uphill Hurl. And when they stop you with a tied or halt you with a crack. Let Courage call the signals as you keep on coming back."

"KEEP COMING BACK, and though the world may romp across your spine. Let every game's end find you still upon the battling line. For when the One Great Score comes to mark against your name. He writes—not that you won or lost—but how you played the game."

A dazzling half-time show, one of the finest prep spectacles in the state, is part of the price of admission to the Prospect High School home football game.

The historic Bry house will be open for tours Oct. 1 and 2 before it will be razed to make room for the new Arlington Heights Library.

1896 Showplace Keeps Its Charm

Tours of the historic Bry house at 506 N. Duane will be conducted Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 1 and 2, to raise funds for the establishment of an historical museum in Arlington Heights.

On Saturday, tours will be conducted from noon to 5:30 p.m., and on Sunday from noon to 5 p.m. A donation of 25 cents a person and 50 cents a family will be accepted.

Tour guides will be members of the Senior Girl Scout Troop 506, the Historical Society, and the Arlington Heights Women's Club.

THE BRY house will be razed in December to provide space for the new Arlington Heights Library.

The 12-room Victorian-style home was built in 1896

by Richard Bry and was considered a show place during that period. The house has oval stained glass windows, and carved decorations, stair rails and an attic the size of a bedroom. The original gas light fixtures and interior system systems are still in the house.

Richard Bry was the owner of a hardware store in the village from 1877 to 1890. In 1890 he went into business with Anthony Kane, assembling milk cans.

AS THE firm grew, Bry and Kane hired Czech-American immigrants and constructed a factory building at Ridge and the North West railway tracks. In 1906 the firm began to manufacture, as well as assemble, dairy containers, strainers, and tins. Richard Bry died in 1920 and the place was sold to the Creamery Package Co. That firm closed the place in January of 1964. Richard Bry's mother, Mrs. John Allen, lived with the family for several years and was a descendant of Benjamin Franklin.

MRS. JOHN Shubert has been appointed chairman for the tour. Members of her committee include Henrietta Kahan and Mrs. Andrew Horvath. Assisting in the project are members of the "Friends of the Museum" group.

Mrs. Shubert said plans for the tour is the home are being made by the Arlington Heights Women's Club and the Two Quarter Club in Arlington Heights.

A group of builders with interests in Arlington Heights last night backed together to successfully oppose a proposed amendment to the comprehensive zoning ordinance of the village.

The proposed amendment, introduced by the board of trustees to the plan commission for approval, contained land in the R-2 and R-3 single-family residential zoning classification.

According to the commission, the minimum lot size for an R-2 lot would be increased from 10,000 square feet to 12,000 square feet, with the width of the lot being increased from 75 feet to 80 feet. Minimum area of an R-3 lot would increase from 8,000 square feet to 10,000 square feet and minimum width from 70 to 75 feet.

Representatives of eight building firms attended the meeting and expressed a three-page list of objections.

TEN MAIN objections were: "Such a change in the text to R-2 and R-3 districts will benefit and give compensation to many other businesses in the Northwest suburban area by increasing the value of the village and the people of the village."

"The change would add from 15 to 25 per cent in land area thereby increasing land costs proportionately."

"There would be a considerable increase in the cost of public improvements per acre."

"The proposed change would increase the cost to the builder and the purchase price to the eventual buyer."

"If the text amendments are approved this will result in lower revenue in the village in the form of permit and other fees."

Finally he was required to increase the price of homes based upon added labor cost and cost of materials. The proposed amendment would be an additional cost, without benefit, hence, clearly inflationary.

"The objections have peculiar handling of the board and desires of purchasers of homes in this community. There has been no evidence that buyers want, desire or demand larger lots than the great variety presently available to them for sale. On the contrary, there is evidence of a growing tendency among home buyers of a desire to have more of a home on a smaller lot to cut down on maintenance cost to the home buyer."

The present zoning and subdivision regulations of the village, together with good planning and site layout by developers, present the home buyer with a wide variety of lot and shape of lots to select from in purchasing a home.

"It is the present policy of this village to attempt to broaden its tax base and encourage industry to locate here. It is a fact that industry is increasing the cost of the village and the people of the village."

"The change would add from 15 to 25 per cent in land area thereby increasing land costs proportionately."

"There would be a considerable increase in the cost of public improvements per acre."

"The proposed change would increase the cost to the builder and the purchase price to the eventual buyer."

Architect's drawing of the planned Northwest Co-operative Mental Health Assn. Clinic to be built on Highland Ave. adjacent to the Juliette Lov School in the Surrey Ridge area of Arlington Heights.

Association Reveals Clinic Plans

The proposed Northwest Co-operative Mental Health Assn. Clinic, as shown in this drawing by architect Ben Dierman, will include eight private therapy rooms, three group therapy rooms, a group therapy room and office and library space for the staff.

There has been considerable discussion of the proposed amendments to Illinois' state election laws in the previous article which was considered by the electronic Nov. 8 — but how people feel (as they will be given two other ballots to mark when they vote).

Voters to Get 3 Ballots Nov. 8

One ballot will call for amendments to the state banking act. The amendments were submitted to referendum without a dissenting vote by the Illinois Republican or Democratic.

BASILICALLY, the purpose of the amendments is to modernize the state banking regulatory agencies and their powers and to confirm the power of Illinois banks to participate in the broadening scope of financial activities.

The other amendment, which is more controversial than those proposed in the banking code, would allow county sheriffs and treasurers to serve more than one term.

Currently, the Illinois Constitution forbids that these officers be limited to one term in office while other elected officials may serve as many terms as they can convince the voters they deserve.

When the Constitution was drafted the limitation was designed as a safeguard for the people-sheriffs and treasurers were out of office after four years and their successors could get a crack at auditing their books.

There are now many state auditing controls, many established by the current and former Michael Hovner, making a repeat of the Orville Hodge scandal unlikely.

HODGE, a former state auditor, was removed to the penitentiary for misuse of state funds that restrict sheriffs and treasurers from serving more than one term.

There is opposition to this proposed amendment, but there apparently is none for the revisions in the banking code.

THOSE OPPOSED to do so on the basis that the built-in controls are not adequate because it is the treasurer who appoints the auditors, leaving the door open to possible abuse.

They maintain that county sheriffs and treasurers are not career men and usually have no professional qualifications for office.

The proposed amendment would alter the office of state treasurer, also constituting a revision to the constitution. The amendment clarifies the method of selection of circuit court clerks. It provides that the circuit clerk is to be elected unless his selection is made by judges in a judicial election provided by law.

Amendment of the revenue articles has been defeated.

AMENDMENT is considered due since 1960.

Adopting requires a two-thirds vote of those voting on the issue. Half or a majority of all votes cast is the constitution. The problem here is that the people fail to vote on complicated issues.

Want to Stretch a Dollar? School Will Teach You How

Lorraine Blair wants to save you money.

She wants to give you "tricks to run on" — a budget, "she says."

Mrs. Blair is founder and president of the Finance Forum of America, a nonprofit educational organization whose sole purpose is to enlighten men and women in business and related matters for their own benefit and the welfare of their families.

HER philosophy and hard facts on how to get the most from a dollar will be offered through High School Day, 214's adult education program.

Classes will be held in Prospect High School on Tuesday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. and in Elk Grove High School on Wednesday from 7:00 to 9:30 a.m.

"The few money a person has, the more they need the type of education," says Mrs. Blair.

"You have to know how to manage money before you can know how to save it. You have to know what money is," she says.

MRS. BLAIR explains that the course will be a "financial literacy" of a family and its budget. Budgeting, banking, insurance, credit, will, taxes, real estate, stocks and bonds and money fund will be explained in conversational language to members of the class.

Some Day

There must be some logic in engineering as to why the work has not started on highway ramps at Arlington Heights.

The state highway department is still trying to find out what happened to Illinois 53 when it got improved work of the highway. The two highway ramps would be built in the northern half of the highway. It just sort of disappears somewhere between Rolling Meadows and Palatine.

There is a state representative who is a legislator who suggests that the highway commission really promotes road work. He says that the commission has agreed to spend money on ramps at Bushwood. Down, a harness racing oval due to open Memorial Day.

The legislature is unhappy because the state is not spending $400,000 for the ramps at Rolling Rd. in Wheeling County when it is spending $600,000 for an interchange at Illinois 47 at Midland Center. The legislature tried to mention that the commission should be spending $600,000 for the Arlington Heights Rd interchange.

It is ridiculous to suspect there is any connection between the fine state highway leading to the back door of Arlington Park and the dismissance of a section of Illinois 53. It would be just as silly to think the highway system is not interested in serving the industrial and suburban areas.

The commissioners were interested only in race tracks, they would put in the Arlington Heights interchange and let the business from the South Drive.

The commission has a right to expect the large volume of industrial and suburban traffic on Arlington Heights Rd. would continue to flow. It is known we do not want any lost town around here.

Vantage Point

... by Jack Vandermyn

Crim prevention is a vast, multi-faceted job. In the Chicago area, however, one special unit of the year has been set aside from three areas of crime prevention — and what the citizenry can do to help.

Chicago's second annual Law Enforcement Week has been scheduled for Sept. 18 through Oct. 18. The event is under the sponsorship of the Chicago Crime Commission.

Purpose of the observance, as outlined in pre-publicity literature, is to educate the public regarding and understanding of law enforcement.

The year, CLEW will have two major objectives. The first is to build better understanding of the role of the police and have the various law enforcement agencies work together to solve the problems of crime.

The second objective will be to enlist the assistance of the public in the fight against crime.

WHILE the first objective is highly identifiable and warrants the attention it will receive, it is the second area that offers the more practical approach to preventing crime.

Illinois is fortunate in that its judicial system, state or federal and efficiently operated, is not interested in serving the industrial and suburban areas.

Law enforcement in Illinois can be confident of this, but it is not interested in serving the industrial and suburban areas.

Dist. 25 Referendum

How Money Would Be Used

This is the second in a series of articles explaining the Elementary School Dist. 25 referendum which will be held Sunday.

By Jim Ross

What would a tax increase do at the time for School Dist. 25? Where would the money go? What if the referendum fails?

Elementary School Dist. 25 serves most of the Village of Arlington Heights. The schools in the district are Dryden, Dutton, Greenbrier, Ivy Hill, Kensington, North, Glen, Park, Patton, Ridge, Wagonway, Wagon, South Junior High, Thomas Junior High and Junior Junior High.

There are school administrators who are concerned with the question of the referendum. The referendum tax increase would provide the district with about 10 per cent more money.

With rising costs and a declining tax base, the district is facing a difficult situation. The increase in the tax rate would provide the district with about 10 per cent more money.

The courts, federal, state and local are generally so overwhelmed, so inefficient and so unresponsive to the public that justice is either being delayed or denied in thousands upon thousands of cases.

From 1962 through 1965, the case backlog in all U.S. district courts rose 15 per cent. The backlog in the federal courts rose 15 per cent.

State courts are no better. The average backlog in Cook County was nearly six years from filing to trial in 1965.

Uncontested divorces and uncontested child support cases are simply bearing up rather than under the cost of litigation in time and money. The backlog in the courts is rising.

Hawaii Here They Come

A Prize Trip for Faners

Mr. J. F. Famer shows the lucky ticket that was his and his husband round trip tickets to Hawaii. The tickets were the top prize at the recent luncheon to benefit Northwest Community Hospital.

A winning ticket made a 25th anniversary dream come true for an Arlington Heights couple.

A trip to Hawaii—the long flight dream of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Famer, 415 Mayfair—is now a reality for them. Mrs. Famer held the winning number of the round trip tickets to Hawaii given as top prize at the recent benefit luncheon of the Northwest Community Hospital.

John Famer is a hard working member of the hospital auxiliary. She had worked on the luncheon and has been helping on the match mobile for 2 years. A death in the family prevented her from attending the luncheon and hearing her lucky number called.

"I'm still floating on air," she said. "Although we had planned to go to Hawaii for our anniversary, we didn't think we'd be able to go. My parents celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary this year and we needed to spend our time with them in California instead of taking our trip. Now we can still go to Hawaii."

Mrs. Famer continued, "My dream was to go to Hawaii to get in touch with my husband. They finally reached my husband at the hotel and gave him the news. When he met me at the station yesterday, he didn't say one single word. I was so excited, I was waiting with a handful of fish for him. It is truly our dream come true," she said.

Mrs. Famer said, "I let out a big yell, and I'm sure the men at the station wondered what was happening. When we got home, my daughter Sally, was waiting with a handful of fish for us. It is truly our dream come true," she said.

Soup and Dumplings For Cool Fall Days

BY MARILYN HELPERS

Smashing hot chicken soup with egg dumplings will warm up your family on the first cool fall days.

The soup can be on the stove while you're busy doing other things. The dumplings can be stirred up in a couple minutes before dinner is to be served.

This chicken broth recipe can be altered to fit your family's tastes. If they prefer vegetables in their soup, add them to the basic recipe.

- CHICKEN BROTH
- 4 lb. whole chicken, neck, wings
  - 8 pepper corns (or freshly ground pepper)

Day by Day
Home Are the Hunters
By Catherine O'Donnell

Edward Conley and his wife, Edna, of Chicago, were not returned from a hunting trip in Alaska. Margaret, who is called Rich, which incidentally was her maiden name, bagged a 1500 pound moose.

A 1500 pound moose, dead or alive is an impressive bank of stumps. Margaret shot the moose with a bow and arrow.

"We used to hunt with rifles," said Dick Conley, "but we did so much hunting that we became very proficient. Some years ago, we decided to switch to a bow and arrow. Hunting with a bow and arrow presents a greater challenge than hunting with a rifle. You are, as an animal can be more than 50 yards away from the hunter for a good shot. You have a moment of truth when you face, for instance, a black bear but the satisfaction is great."

The moose that Margaret shot was used by the Lady of Chatham, Alaska for a barbecue. The head was to be mounted by a taxidermist. Edna Spilane. It measures 7' 6" high and the Conleys are not decided upon the exact spot for it to their home.

Their present decorations include three mounted bear heads and two deer heads. The moose may well replace the prong.

The ALASKAN trip was made in the Conley's two engine Cessna with Mrs. Conley at the controls for a good part of the way. Dick was on a business holiday if you call a flying plane a holiday.

He has been flying the friendly state of United for the past 20 years in just about every type of air craft. At present, he is flying a Cessna to New York and New York to Los Angeles in a biplane. The which he calls, "a really beautiful specimen."

The Conleys flew the Cessna to Glen Ellen, a tiny hamlet in a picturesque and beautiful area surrounded on four sides by the Alaska coast and mountains. On the way, Dick and Edna, who were on a hunting trip, were treated more as taking a vacation and came for a rest by the American Archery company of the Olympic Club, Wash., of which he is a part owner.

From Glen Ellen, they flew to the Alaska coast and then to Homer, where they left their car and went on a hunting trip with a bush pilot. Dick is a professional hunter and he is the bush pilot who you put a moose head back in the place where it was shot.

Men who plot just have been referred to as the high and mighty hunters. The hunters of Captain and Mrs. Conley are not so much hunters as they are hunters. There is only one thing that a professional hunter does for the bush pilot who you put a moose head back in the place where it was shot.

Former Cardinal Football Star Sparks Northern Illinois Defense

BY BOB CATERLINE

Das Meyers is up to his old tricks again.

The 5-10, 160-pound Arlington Heights native is leading the Northern Illinois University defense unit, just like he did last year as a junior.

Last Saturday, he intercepted one Butler University pass and returned it three yards. Last fall he matched eight enemy yards and ran them back 149 yards, setting a school record and leading the league in that department on route to all-conference honors.

IN ADDITION, he hauled down a pair of Butler passes in his last 18 and 37 yard line, spearing Butler runner while Northern rolled up a 34 victory.

Meyers' action wasn't all on defense, either. He ran back half of Butler's kick-offs for an total of 447 yards, ridding of 30 on one and 10 on another.

Das went to Northern from Arlington High School, where he played and as a freshman and sophomore but was switched to quarterback as a junior. "His great value, though, was as a defensive back," says his prep grid coach, Ben Orban.

He was a crisp tackle and was drier about intercepting passes. The most outstanding play that came to mind, though, came on a fumble.

Prospecting

WITH DALE NORMAN

A glance at last weekend's action makes Arlington look more and more like the team to beat for the Mid-South League football title this year.

THE CARDINALS came through in fine style Saturday against a Burnhampton team that made the best in Burnham history, while the 1966 Arlington football team looked like a team to watch.

Defending champion Palatine, in fact, didn't make it to the top of the Burnhampton team, but the Cardinals' defense was a real surprise.

School Tax Rate Vote Saturday

Voters in Elementary School Dist. 25 will decide tomorrow if they want to increase the district's educational and building fund tax rates.

The proposal is a referendum to raise the educational fund tax rate from $1.46 to $1.67 and the building fund tax rate from 25 cents to 27 1/2 cents.

School officials estimate the increase would mean $230 additional taxes for a home assessed at $100,000 with a market value of about $25,000.

Voting will be held from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. in 13 elementary schools. The schools are Duane, 1200 S. Duane; Dryden, 222 Dryden; Wagon, 1211 W. Grove; Doyle, 500 S. Doyle; Park, 200 W. Park; Windsor, 1315 E. Main; Kensington, 201 S. Kensington; North, 410 N. Arlington Heights Rd.; Ridge, 800 N. Fernside; Oak, 203 E. Oak; Forest, 1614 N. Forest; Wilson, 13 E. Palatine Rd.; and Hill, 2211 N. Burke Dr.

No voting will be conducted in junior high schools.

SCHOOL. Sept. 23, A.E. Chicago and the combined tax rate increase of 13 1/2 cents would represent about 14 per cent of the school's total tax rate.

"The increase would mean about 10 per cent more money to be used in the educational fund," Chicago said, "and it will not increase the amount of state aid to be received."

One of the district's biggest problems, school officials say, is the fact that tax revenue must be raised almost entirely from residential property. The district has little industrial property on tax rolls.

Continued residential development coupled with a decline in assessed valuation in relation to the number of pupils in working a financial hardship on the district. Assessed valuation per pupil dropped from $21,896 in 1961 to $18,919 in 1965.

COSTS per pupil in the meantime have increased. This year the school board sold $77,000 in tax anticipation warrants for the educational fund and $75,000 for the building fund. Next year more than $100,000 in tax warrants are expected to be issued.

School officials say failure to increase revenue will seriously handicap the education program. They have told their story to every civic, PTA, and school group, organization that has invited them to a meeting, and they will get their answer.

Trapped by Gates, Witness Reports

A Prospect Heights man was killed yesterday when his car was hit by a Chicago & North Western commuter train.

Eric A. Wallberg, 39, of 204 Clarendon, Prospect Heights, was pinned in the wreckage of his car after it was struck at the Euclid St. crossing just west of Northwest Hwy. The accident happened at 5:30 p.m.

Robert M. John of Rockford, the train engineer, told police the crossing gates were down and Wallberg drove around them.

WITNESSES gave police a different version, reporting that the gates came down trapping Wallberg on the tracks.

John R. Krueger of Mount Prospect told police his car was behind Wallberg's at the time of the accident.

"We were both eastbound in Euclid and stopped."

waiting for a train to pass," Krueger told police. "The gates went up and traffic began to cross the tracks."

"Then the gates went down again and actually struck two cars. His (Wallberg's) car was on the tracks. If he had stayed where he was, he would have been all right, but he turned trying to get off the tracks and the train hit the car."

THE TRAIN was coming into Arlington Heights from the west and the police report gave it speed of 70 m.p.h. It took police and firemen about 20 minutes to remove the body from the wreckage.

Wallberg is survived by his wife Patricia and son Alfred. He was a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church, Arlington Heights. Funeral arrangements are being made by St. Paul Funeral Home.

$56,000 Rebate for Property Owners

Arlington Park Manor property owners were given a $56,000 rebate by the Board of Local Government last night.

The rebate is on a $273,000 special assessment for underground sewer and water improvements in the sub division. More than 600 lots are involved.

Kenneth Stoenner, BOLI attorney, said the rebate would amount to from $50 to $150 per property owner.

They payers, however, will not get money back because the total assessment hasn't been paid. Instead, the lot of 10 payments and half of the sixth payment will be cancelled. The payments come over the next year over a 10-year period.

Stoenner said property owners will be notified by the village after the rebate is cleared by a city order.

"Boy, am I glad this project is over," Krueger said.

"We never hear of Arlington Park Manor again," BOLI member Harold Krueger said.

Residents of the subdivision voluntarily opposed the assessment during public hearings.

"Maybe they'll come as a group to our next meeting and thank us," BOLI chairman Sam Radtke said.

"Don't count on it. No one ever thanks us," Krueger said.

Sunday in Ohio

By Catherine O'Donnell

The devoted traveler of Day by Day is back with another story of the world. He and his wife attended a wedding in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Sunday guest list grew as the Saturday wedding festivities progressed. The former Ohioans knew that liquor was not sold on Sunday so they provided for the detail.

They stayed at a motel near the airport and decided to invite some old friends to have a drink with them before departing for the airport.

Only a crowd showed up at the motel. It was a gay affair. There was one problem: guests who did not say much but were sadder and sadder. In fact, he actually bowed over his sorrow.

man was that he was a stranger. No one knew to him him. Finally, the host called the busman over to ask who the man was. She didn't know, so he asked a friend who had been talking to him. She learned that he was from a distant Cleveland suburb and that he had come to the airport that morning to meet his wife's sister who flew from Europe.

However the night was not too long. It was 7:00 a.m. but at 7:00 p.m. that night. The man decided against the long trip home and took a room at the motel. Trying to recall to get a drink, he offered a bottle of a substantial reward, but no liquor on Sunday in Ohio means no liquor.

The bellhop was stopped but not for long. He invited the stranger to the Arlington Heights party where he thoroughly enjoyed himself.

Some Day

Dear Kid:—
Saturday is the nearest day to the day when you will go to the nearest elementary school. If you live in the 25 and vote to increase in the tax rate, the district includes most of Arlington Heights, a total of 14 school buildings.

The only confusion that arises at this time is in the neighborhood of Kensington School where some of the parents may find themselves at a loss for a few days. Tell them the buses do not run on Saturday. It might be a good idea to get up early and run around the block making a lot of noise so people get out of bed before 7 a.m. They know what the more people who vote in these elections, the better it is for the "yes" side.

Some sociologists will probably figure out some day that people like to vote "yes" because they know they have old women across the street. If you live in the 25 and vote to increase in the tax rate, you will only out your folks around $15 to keep the schools in business for a while longer. This is a small price compared to the thought of closing the schools and having you spend the hours all day.

One reason for the tax rate increase is inflation. This is the higher price you must pay for hamburgers, milk, milkshakes, ice cream, and the window that were broken during the summer.

Another reason is that there are few factories in town. This is why the tax rate is so low. It would do you good to ride with the tax rate to a factory and the kids who live around them.

Vote Yes Tomorrow

Tomorrow voters in Elementary School District 25 (and that includes Arlington Heights) will vote on a referendum on an increased tax rate of 33 1/2 cents.

Stated more specifically, those voters with enough interest in our educational system and enough information on the proposed tax increase will decide if the average home-owner is to pay $15 to $40 more a year for schools.

If the additional funds the school board is seeking are justified. Yet there are several things about the referendum that puzzle us.

Today this newspaper is publishing the third in a series of articles setting forth the school board's reasons why a tax increase is necessary. The board has made an excellent and thoughtful presentation documenting the need for more funds.

It is true we have published no expression of opposition. We have been able to find none. We are surprised that there has been no organized opposition to the proposal. This could indicate general approval of the tax increase, a silent protest, or the best consideration of the question.

The board's presentation is a masterpiece of specialized knowledge, over-education, and a total lack of common sense. It is a masterpiece of the kind that is so common in the world of education.

A rare poll of residents taken that only 40 per cent on Wednesday revealed that there would be a referendum Saturday. The poll was, of course, completely unscientific, but we believe the additional funds are justified because we have given the proposal the best consideration of which we are capable.

We would feel considerably more comfortable about the change in Arlington Heights should our view on the importance of the issue to express our opinion. The poll was a true expression of the majority of the people it reached more substantial than editorial views of any newspaper.

Recognition Dinner To Honor 4-H Leaders

North Cook County 4-H Club Leaders will be honored at a special recognition banquet next Tuesday.

The banquet will be held at the Old Orchard Hotel, 700 North Dearborn Street, Chicago, at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, October 10.

The banquet is being sponsored by the North Cook County 4-H Club, which is a part of the Cooperative Extension Service, University of Illinois.

The banquet will be the first of a series of events to honor the 4-H Club leaders.

Vantage Point

Tomorrow is another big referendum day. The City of Arlington Heights will vote on a referendum to increase the tax rate to 33 1/2 cents.

In the River Trails Park District, vote will be held on a referendum to increase the tax rate to 33 1/2 cents.

It seems that every Saturday a "reference day" is one part of the community or the other. We suggested recently that the governing and taxing bodies should hand together and hold their "reference" referendums at the same time — instead of one big package to the voters for approval or disapproval.

The objection to this is that the voters would then be able to judge more accurately just how much their "taxes" are going to be increased.

That fact, this year, Arlington Heights and River Trails Park voters have been asked to vote on a referendum to increase the tax rate to 33 1/2 cents.

In Arlington Heights, taxpayers will be asked to vote on a referendum to increase the tax rate to 33 1/2 cents.

And the tragedy of the referendum is that it will be held on a Saturday.

When will it end? School administrators are instant to point at any specific period of time to allow the financial condition in the district to grow more stable.

IT WOULD be a mistake, believe it or not, to think that the tax rate will be righted once the district population reaches its peak.

They believe that it will be too many years from now to have this condition come about, but the only expenditure directly affected will be the cost of the school building.

The educational and building costs are no way related to the school construction. Construction costs come out of a bond and interest fund and the results in a bond and interest rate will decline gradually, but operating funds will be needed and there will be more from the two funds being voted on.

The forces regulating the increase in the building and educational funds are not the same.

Too many bonds must be sold to pay for the school building. The forces regulating the increase in the building and educational funds are not the same.

whole situation is that the high cost of suburban real estate tax is being decided by as few of the voters.

Only 12 per cent of the electorate thought the $6,800,000 District 214 high school referendum important enough to make them get out the door.

Only 8,000 voters were interested enough in the Harper College referendum to cast their votes.

THE DISPLAY of interest last week in Mount Prospect on the government change referendum makes it apparent that the people can be stirred to vote.

The Mount Prospect referendum caught their imagination. Apparently, school bond issues will be the only "imaginative" tax issue that will stir the suburban taxpayer out of his apathy.

It appears in the case of the River Trails park district question, enough interest has been generated to turn out a healthy vote. Here, the voters are asked to vote on a referendum to increase the tax rate to 33 1/2 cents.

Why don't we schools and districts know the answer to this question?

We do know that tax bills, which will be delivered to residents next April, are going to show a big increase. We know that the school district will be forced to raise the tax rate to 33 1/2 cents.

The increase of 33 1/2 cents per $100 assessed valuation would mean an increase of $15.00 on the tax bill of a homeowner whose home is assessed at $100,000.

When will it end? School administrators are instant to point at any specific period of time to allow the financial condition in the district to grow more stable.

How Much Will It Cost And For How Long?

BY JIM BOSS

(Last of Three Articles)

If approved, the Elementary School District 25 tax referendum will raise the total tax rate of the district 33 1/2 cents.

The proposal is to raise the educational tax rate maximum from $14.85 to $18.47 and the building rate maximum from 25 cents to 33 1/2 cents.

The approximately 14 per cent increase in the district's total tax rate would give school administrators about 10 per cent more money to spend on building and educational funds with which to work.

Elementary School District 25 serves most of the Village of Arlington Heights. The 16 school districts in the district are: Dryden, Dayton, Glenview, Irving Hill, Kensington, North Oak, Park, Parkview, Ridge, Westmont, Wilmette, Winnetka, South Junior High, Thomas Junior High and Miner Junior High.

For the tax payer, in the district, the hike would mean an increase of about 6 per cent in total community tax bills.

The increase of 33 1/2 cents per $100 assessed valuation would mean an increase of $15.00 on the tax bill of a homeowner whose home is assessed at $100,000.

When will it end? School administrators are instant to point at any specific period of time to allow the financial condition in the district to grow more stable.
